DCS' High School Boys Basketball Wins!

DETROIT – Detroit Community Schools' (DCS) High School Boys Basketball Team defeated Detroit Leadership Academy, 52-37, on Wednesday night. DCS' new Coach Derrick Davis and his team showed a lot of spirit in the victory, after such a long layoff and limited practices. "It was a great team effort, and everyone did something special to contribute to the win," says Coach Davis.

Martice Parker led the Hurricanes in scoring with 17 points. Daniel Williamson and Kenya Knight, Jr. had 14 and 11 points, respectively.

DCS' Cheer Team was in full force adding to the spirit. Always encouraging, DCS' Cheer Team is the team behind the team; rooting for the players, the new coach, the entire team and Detroit Community Schools.

The Hurricanes next contest is at home on Friday night, February 12, 2021, against Detroit Public Safety. The game time is 6:00 pm.

Additionally, Detroit Community Schools' Lady Hurricane Girls Basketball Team opens their season on Friday evening, February 12th, at Chandler Park Academy. The Lady Hurricane's game time is 4:30 pm.
